Your Eminence, Dear brother and concelebrant in the Lord, It is with profound sadness that we learn of the falling asleep of His Eminence, Metropolitan Iakovos of Chicago. May our Lord God grant His Eminence eternal rest and a blessed repose in the mansions of the righteous, and may he be ever remembered here on earth.

For nearly five decades, His Eminence bore the yoke of Episcopal service to Christ’s Holy Church in a variety of ministries throughout the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese in America. His dedication to theological education and his commitment to those in need have always been and will continue to serve as testaments to His Eminence’s work as a true shepherd of the people of God.

The Holy Synod of Bishops of the Orthodox Church in America joins me in offering our condolences and assuring all the clergy, monastics and faithful of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America of our prayers for the repose of the soul of Metropolitan Iakovos.

We take refuge in the hope that is Christ’s Resurrection, confident that our risen Lord has embraced His servant, the newly departed Metropolitan Iakovos, with love and has rewarded him for his faithful service.

With love in our Lord,
+ Tikhon
Archbishop of Washington
Metropolitan of All America and Canada

Metropolitan Tikhon honors Fr. Glagolev on visit to East Meadow, NY parish

On Sunday, June 4, 2017—the Great Feast of Pentecost—His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon celebrated the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy at Holy Trinity Church, East Meadow, NY. Archpriest Martin Kraus, Rector, and the parish faithful welcomed Metropolitan Tikhon on the joyous celebration of their parish's patronal feast day.

Following the Divine Liturgy, Metropolitan Tikhon presided at the Vespers of Pentecost and Kneeling Prayers. A festal procession concluded the day's liturgical celebrations.

During the Divine Liturgy, Metropolitan Tikhon awarded Archpriest Sergei Glagolev the right to wear the miter, in recognition of his many years of outstanding service to the Orthodox Church in America. Metropolitan Tikhon spoke of Father Sergei andmar Matushka Genevieve's life-long devotion to and ministry in the Church.

Father Sergei is descended from a long line of Orthodox priests and educators dating from the 16th century. Born in 1928, he grew up in the religious and cultural milieu of the large Orthodox immigrant communities in the Gary, IN and Cleveland, OH areas. A talented musician, his musical education began at the age of seven under the tutelage of his father, who himself was a well-known priest, composer and choirmaster. Father Sergei began directing the Pittsburgh Cathedral Choir at the age of 13. A pioneer in incorporating English into the liturgical services, his works carry a distinct "American Orthodox" identity while bearing the influence of Russian choral masters, such as Kastalsky, Gretchaninoff, and Chesnokov, as well as J. S. Bach, Vivaldi, and Palestrina.

After World War II, Father Sergei was educated at Oberlin, Julliard, New York University, and Saint Vladimir's Seminary, at that time in New York City. He was choirmaster in Clifton, NJ; Lorain, OH and Detroit, MI. In Detroit he married the former Genevieve Brunarsky in 1951. In the same year he was ordained to the diaconate. The following year, he was ordained to the priesthood. Father Sergei and Matushka Genevieve, affectionately called "Gerry," have three children and four grandchildren.

The Glagolevs spent 23 years in California where they were called in 1954 to organize the first English-speaking missions. The use of the English vernacular, liturgical renewal, Eucharistic awakening, and the growth of the suburban missions throughout America in large part began as the "Encino Movement"—a reference to Saint Innocent Church, Tarzana, CA, originally established in neighboring Encino and pastored by Father Sergei. Before returning to the East Coast in 1976, he served as Dean of San Francisco's Holy Trinity Cathedral and Chancellor of the Diocese of the West.

Father Sergei taught at Saint Vladimir's Seminary, Yonkers, NY; Saint Tikhon's Seminary, South Canaan, PA; and Saint Herman's Seminary, Kodiak, AK, focusing on the fields of homiletics, liturgical theology and sacred music. He also served as the Director—today Director Emeritus—of the Fellowship of Orthodox Stewards of the Orthodox Church in America. He served as Rector of Holy Trinity Church, East Meadow, NY prior to his retirement. He continues to lecture and write, hoping to share in shaping the vision of the witness and mission of the Orthodox Church in America. In 2014, he was one of four initial recipients of the Orthodox Church in America's Order of Saint Romanos, which was awarded by the Holy Synod of Bishops "for his lifetime of musical contributions as a singer, choirmaster, composer and teacher" and for pioneering "the use of English in liturgical services, of which many are now classic parts of the repertoire of parish choirs."

Bishop Paul Sends Letter of Condolence to Locum Tenens of Chicago Metropolis on Repose of Metropolitan Iakovos

In a letter addressed to His Eminence, Metropolitan Nicholas of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America's Metropolis of Detroit, dated June 5, 2017, His Grace, Bishop Paul of Chicago and the Midwest offered condolences on the repose of His Eminence, Metropolitan Iakovos of the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago. His Eminence, 89, fell asleep in the Lord on Friday evening, June 2 at Chicago's Weiss Memorial Hospital after a brief illness. Metropolitan Nicholas in turn was named Locum Tenens of the Metropolis of Chicago.

Metropolitan Iakovos served the Chicago Metropolis since May 1, 1979. A detailed In Memoriam and biography is available on the web site of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.

Letter of Condolence of Bishop Paul of Chicago & the Midwest on the Repose of Metropolitan Iakovos of Chicago June 5, 2017

The Most Reverend Nicholas, Metropolitan and Archbishop of Detroit Locum Tenens of the Metropolis of Chicago Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America

Your Eminence,
Christ is in our midst!

On behalf of the Diocese of the Midwest of the Orthodox Church in America I extend my condolences on the repose of our newly departed brother and concelebrant in Christ, His Eminence, Metropolitan Iakovos.

Metropolitan Iakovos' life has a special meaning to me in that, as a young altar server at Saints Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church in Detroit, it was His Eminence who tonsured me as Αναγνώστης, thus placing me on the road of ordination and eventually to my consecration to the Episcopate in 2014.

Thanks be to God for Metropolitan Iakovos' many years of faithful service to our Orthodox Church in North America. Please be assured of my prayers for our beloved brother who he has fallen asleep. Also, please be assured of my prayers for the Metropolis of Chicago as it grieves this loss to the Church on earth in pilgrimage, while rejoicing with the saints who have fallen asleep in the hope of eternal life and resurrection in the Church of the New Jerusalem.

May the Grace of the All-Holy Spirit continue to guide and lead us to an ever-deepening relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ, Who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

In Christ's love, the unworthy

Hebrews 11:33-12:2 (Epistle)

who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again. Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented – of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us. Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

REFLECTION FROM THE FATHERS

Do not let pass any opportunity to pray for anyone, either at his request or at the request of his relatives, friends, of those who esteem him, or of his acquaintances. The Lord looks favorably upon the prayer of our love, and upon our boldness before him. Besides this, prayer for others is very beneficial to the one himself who prays for others; it purifies the heart, strengthens faith and hope in God, and enkindles our love for God and our neighbor. When praying, say thus: 'Lord, it is possible for Thee to do this or that to this servant of Thine; do this for him, for Thy name is the Merciful Love of Men and the Almighty.'

Matushka Olga Kapral

Matushka Olga Kapral, 92, wife of the late Archpriest Michael Kapral, fell asleep in the Lord here after a brief illness on Tuesday, June 6, 2017.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, PA on December 16, 1924, she was the daughter of Maxim and Susanna [Zubal] Grabko. She and Father Michael, who fell asleep in the Lord in 1979, had faithfully served parishes in Lykens, PA; Lynn, MA; Bethlehem, PA; Warren, OH and Newark, NJ. Matushka Olga was very active in parish life, teaching Sunday School and directing the choir.

Matushka Olga earned a Bachelor Degree from Kent State University and Masters Degree from the University of Dayton, OH. She was an elementary school teacher for many years in the Warren, OH School District. She was active in the Urban League and NAACP, played the violin in the orchestra at Hiram College and enjoyed painting. Upon her retirement, she enjoyed her farm, raising and showing horses. In later life she moved to Drums, PA to be closer to her family and remained in her home until her passing. She was an avid opera fan and member of the Mozart Club.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, Robert Grabko and William Grabko, and by her sister, Dolores Grabko. She is survived by her sons Sergei [Victoria] Kapral, Plains, PA and Michael [Danetha] Kapral, Manakin Sabot, VA; her grandchildren Sergei Kapral of Lancaster, PA, Lauren [Todd] Forgette and daughter Ekatarina, Goldsboro, NC, and Alexander [Hayley] Kapral, Wyoming; and her sister Laverne Perotto, Collegeville.

May her Memory be eternal!

Matthew 10:32-33, 37-38, 19:27-30 (Gospel)

Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven. He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. Then Peter answered and said to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You. Therefore what shall we have?" So Jesus said to them, "Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last first.
